

Arizona Mushroom Club
Annual Holiday Meeting and Potluck Dinner
December 7, 2012, at 6:30 p.m.
4341 EAST BROADWAY
PHOENIX, ARIZONA

Our Annual Holiday Potluck of The Arizona Mushroom Club will be held Friday, December 7, 2012 at 6:30 p.m. at the Maricopa County Extension Service Building located at 4341 East Broadway in Phoenix, Arizona. The entrance (easy to miss in the dark) is on the South side of Broadway Rd, about 30 feet east of the Traffic Light at 43rd Place.

Three FREE turkey or ham certificates will be given to the winners of the Door Prize drawing.

Be sure to bring a dish to share at the potluck according to the following assignment:

If your last name begins with letters A-H, please bring a main dish; if I-P, bring a salad; if Q-Z please bring a dessert.

Of course, please bring the proper utensil with which to serve the dish, SPOON, TONGS, and FORK etc. If the dish is to be served hot, bring your own crock-pot, skillet, etc. and extension cord to be plugged in.

Coffee, soft drinks, ice, paper plates, cups and plastic utensils will be provided by the Club. The Club will also provide a cooked ham.

As our program for the evening, we will have an interesting final report on the poisoning case involving the author of "The Horse Whisperer" and his wife and friends. A story you MUST hear!!!!

Other activities for the meeting are now in the planning stages, so you will have to attend to enjoy them. Our AMC Potlucks have always been an enjoyable way to recap the years activities, and give you a chance to win a free turkey or ham for the Holiday Season.

If you have a photograph of an interesting mushroom or other fungus, feel free to bring that along to set up on our display table. Terry Beckman has found a rare puffball and that will be on display as well.

Mark your calendars for December 7, 2012 and plan to come!
